My brothers,

Something I have learned over the years that has helped me in all facets of life is introspection. One's ability to critically analyze himself is difficult. However, I find it necessary. I find myself asking questions like, Am I dividing my time properly? Am I fair and just to all? Am I being the best man, husband, father, and Mason? Am I reminding my brother in the most tender manner of his failings, and aiding in his reformation?

These are just some of the questions I ask myself. Let me give everybody some homework. Take out a paper and answer these questions and look at the answers and figure out what changes are needed to make you a better man and Mason.

We say that we make good men better. Let's keep to that. Every week, every day, and every hour enjoy the brotherhood and continue to make yourself better and each other better.

Our time here is limited and our hourglass keeps going, so remember that we are remembered for the work we've done. Let us be remembered the good work

Fraternally,

W:. Eran Erez, PM President District 26 Masters and Wardens,

Greetings my brother's

Let me open up this message by expressing my deep sorrow at the passing of a great Mason who will be sorely missed both as a friend and his total commitment to Masonry and the appendant bodies which he was so involved in. John Borsa recently passed away at his home peacefully (I am told). John was the Recorder of the Mahi Shrine and the Treasurer of the Scottish Rite Valley of Miami along with being a past DDGM amongst other important roles he held. It will be difficult to say the least to replace all the things he did-rest in peace my brother!

Welcome to the upcoming holiday season; wishing everyone a very happy and healthy fall.

I am pleased to report that I am progressing along nicely in my recovery from surgery in September and I am so looking forward to getting out and back visiting and seeing my wonderful brothers. To say that I have missed you all would be a huge understatement to say the least! As I begin to make my return, I am informed that I will still need to take care and be careful in my social interactions with everyone. The doctors are telling me that I will be required to continue wearing a mask and attempting to maintain some social distancing, at least for a while. That's not how I envisioned my return; I was looking forward to hugs and handshakes, however, initially, just being out and about amongst my beloved brothers will be a great start.

I would like to thank you all for standing by me and showing me the love and support I have experienced during these last several months. I can only hope to live up to what you have all shown me during my recovery. A special and heartfelt shout-out to one of the dearest, smartest, friendliest, most talented men and Mason's I could have ever had the privilege to get to know-my friend and most cherished brother, RW Ryan Lombardi. There are no words I could ever find to adequately express the love and gratitude I have for this dear man! Thank you RW Ryan for all you have done and all you will do for me and Masonry.

In closing I want each and everyone one of you to know what a special place you all have in my heart and how much I am looking forward to seeing you all very soon!

Wishing you all the best that life has to offer,

With much fraternal love and affection,

Your brother

Please, we need your help! The Grand Worthy Advisor, our Abigail, is having a popcorn sale and a raffle. If everyone in our district would participate, we would more than meet our goal. On Nov3-7th you can visit DoubleGood.com https://s.dgpopup.com/2687khdi and make your purchase from the Hollywood Assembly Popcorn Pop-Up Store. If We make the most sales we win a party. If you are not a fan of Popcorn, then be sure to grab a raffle ticket or perhaps a few. One ticket is a $10 donation that puts you in the drawing for a $300 cash prize, a Ninja Foodi or a beautiful handmade Afghan. Be sure to reach out for information or you can just message FLIORG by following the QR Code at the top of our page.

Be sure to check out Episode 2 of Season 6 GWA TV! One of our district lodges is featured at the end of one of the segments. Also starting is your very own Grand Master and a couple of his officers. Watch the whole video to be sure to catch all the info, then subscribe to our channel so you won't miss another episode.

We have a new member joining our assembly and we can't wait for you to meet her. Be sure to catch next month's article to read all about our Official Visit and Initiation. Remember, if you know of a young lady in the South Florida area who would benefit from our group's sisterhood, please send her our way. We are also looking to build back in the Miami area. Our girls have been sharing their time in Miami in the hope of gaining back our Miami assembly by building a pleage group affiliated with Hollywood. We will keep you posted on our progress.

Thank you District 26 for all you do for our girls! Many Blessings for a wonderful Thanksgiving!
